Dear Students:

Welcome to Securities Arbitration for the Spring of 2015.

Please consult the Syllabus for your first class readings (as well as the subsequent ones), and examine your Course Materials packet. There you will find much of what you need.

As for the first class readings, they include, specifically:

The Supreme Court cases in Stotl-Nielsen, Italian Colors, and, most important, Concepcion v. AT & T.

The articles regarding same, available at www.sabinolaw.com, at the “Articles” tab.

The selected provisions of the Federal Arbitration Act, Title 9 of the United States Code.

See you in class,
Prof. Sabino
