Prior to the first day of class, all students must register on the TWEN course page, review the syllabus, watch one or more videos from ReinventLawChannel.com, and come prepared to provide a brief overview of the video(s) you watched during class. In addition, all students must have read and finished the one assigned book for the course, Richard Susskind’s paperback, Tomorrow’s Lawyers: An Introduction to Your Future (Oxford 2013).
